Say Bon Bini to Blue Skies.... Crystal Clear Water & Unlimited Visibility!

When: April 21st - April 28th, 2012

Where: The Plaza Resort in Bonaire

Why: Cause You Need It!

Bonaire is a small island off the coast of Venezuela in the southern area of the Caribbean region, a 4 hour flight from Atlanta and 5 hours from New York.

Bonaire is famous for its sunny climate, unspoilt nature, turquoise sea, pearl-white beaches, picturesque underwater world and its first-rate diving, snorkelling and windsurfing facilities. Bonaire has an area of 288 km<sup>2</sup> (17,166 acres) (39 km long and 5 to 12 km wide) and has a population of 16,000 residents, of whom 10,000 live in the capital city of Kralendijk. Bonaire is one of the five island areas of the Netherlands Antilles, a country in the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Over the years, Bonaire has been given various labels, such as "the best kept secret", "place of absolute tranquillity", "diver's paradise", "still unspoilt", and on and on.

Climate

Bonaire enjoys a uniquely gentle climate. The average midday temperature is 86 F. and, 78 F. at night. Ocean temperature is generally between 78 and 82 degrees F.

Inhabitants and the language

The official language of Bonaire is Papiamentu, but everyone also speaks Dutch and English.
